DEPARTMENT OF STATE
WASHINGTON

January 6, 1960

Dear Allen:

As I reach the end of my assignment here, I should like to record my appreciation of the contribution made by [ ] to the work of the Joint Disarmament Study. Not only did he work faithfully and intelligently but his general ability made him outstanding among an unusually able staff.

Further he brought to bear on arms control problems his specialized knowledge in a way that was a great help to me personally and to the staff as a whole. Many thanks for your having assigned him to this work.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Coolidge
Charles A. Coolidge.
